

Request for Electronic Communications

Under Tax Code Section 1.085, chief appraisers of county appraisal districts, appraisal districts and appraisal review boards may communicate electronically through email or other methods with property owners or their designated representatives. Electronic communication for the purpose of delivering notices, applications and other documents is authorized only if the Chief Appraiser and the property owner or designated representative agrees under that law to communicate in an electronic format. The agreement remains in effect until rescinded, in writing, by the property owner or designated representative.

An agreement must:

- Be in writing in electronic format
- Signed by the chief appraiser
- Signed by the property owner or person designated by the owner in a form acceptable to the chief appraiser

Specify:

- Medium of communication
- Type of communication covered
- Means for protecting the security of a communication
- Means for confirming delivery of a communication
- Electronic mail address of the property owner or person designated by the property owner, as applicable
